

In Between Times

1. If you could spend a day in the company of any three celebrities, who would you choose & why?
2. What other examples of hospitality in the Bible come to mind?
Romans 12:13 says, 'Practice hospitality'. What makes for good hospitality, & why does it matter?
How might we improve the hospitality we offer in our homes, our community & our church?
3. How are we to understand Judas' role & place within God's eternal kingdom?
What do you make of the apostles' decision to appoint Matthias to the Twelve?
4. What would you say is the right balance to strike between tradition & innovation?
What changes are needed in our church life in order to give us more of a kingdom focus?
5. In what ways might you like to serve the needs of the church/ community?
How as a church can we strike the right balance between serving & being served?