

The Good News According To Matthew

1. Which is your favourite screen portrayal of Jesus, & why?
If you could cast any actor to play Jesus on screen, who would you choose?
2. Who would you say has had the biggest influence on your faith journey so far? Who was their biggest influence?
Whose faith journey would you say you have/had most input on? How does that responsibility make you feel?
3. To what extent would you say Jesus was immersed in his surrounding culture? What might we learn from his approach?
Jesus says we are the salt of the earth & the light of the world (Matthew 5:13-14). How might these metaphors help us to understand Jesus' intention for our own involvement with the world around us?
4. Jesus is described as 'God with us'. To what extent are we also able to describe the Holy Spirit in this way?
What's your experience of 'God with us' over this past year?
In what ways would you like God to be more tangibly present with you in your life?
